Coppo Veneto is the modern descendant of the tiles used by Romans and Byzantines. SanMarco combines the traditional beauty of olden times with the most up-to-date technologies. Thicker than traditional barrel tiles and designed with special technical features, the Coppo Veneto barrel tile assures safety and maximum life. Coppo Veneto is the fruit of an uncompromising production process and careful regard for aesthetics. Available in 6 colors, it is the perfect choice for both modern and historical projects.

Coppo Veneto is a CE marked product

TIME-HONORED ITALIAN TASTE

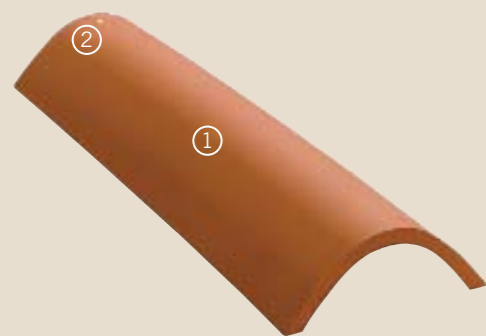

BARREL TILES ARE THE MOST FREQUENTLY USED ROOFING MATERIAL IN ITALY AND ARE A DISTINCTIVE CONTRIBUTION TO THE UNIQUE CHARM OF THE LOCAL LANDSCAPES. COPPO VENETO SANMARCO IS PRODUCED WITH SELECT CLAYS TO BRING OUT THE FINEST TRADITIONAL BEAUTY. IT IS AVAILABLE IN 6 COLORS AND 2 SUGGESTIVE FINISHES: SMOOTH FOR HISTORICAL BUILDINGS AND GROOVED FOR MORE MODERN ARCHITECTURES.

SMOOTH FINISHING

GROOVED FINISHING

SINGLE NIB

COPPO VENETO 50

- 1_ Thicker than common extruded barrel tiles.
- 2_ Fastening hole.

To ensure chromatic homogeneity throughout the entire project, intermix tiles from different pallets.

Can be laid directly on wood battens. Perfect stability on steep slopes thanks to tooth. Suitable for both a traditional horizontal frame, and for laying on pre-molded insulation panels.

Coppo Veneto is also available in the larger Coppo 50 format for tiling large roofs with a relatively small number of pieces.
